President's Message

November is a busy month. Besides mid-term elections and Thanksgiving, we also have our annual Home Tour. We will be showing four amazing homes. We are fortunate that the owners have volunteered their homes for the tour. We definitely appreciate it.

If you are volunteering at one of the beautiful homes, be sure to arrive in plenty of time for your home tour shift, 15 minutes prior to your shift. Don't forget your cookies.

We're hoping to have a great turnout. Let's see how many tickets we can sell so others can view these beautiful homes.

Also this month, there is a college women's volleyball game on November 17th. It is the UOP Lady Tigers vs the Brigham Young University Cougars at UOP's Spanos Center at 12:00 noon. If interested, contact Cindy Milford before the November 15th deadline. Tickets are very reasonable.

Thank you to the Home Tour Committee and to all involved with the home tour and to Cindy Milford for arranging the volleyball games.

One of our goals for the STEM Trek mentoring program is to instill confidence in our girls for all life situations. On October 12th, the group took a two hour self-defense class at New School Aikido with Sensei Nate.

With sexual assault in the forefront of current events we feel that knowledge is empowerment. Our girls and mentors learned that females do not have to be victims and that we can be proactive in learning to defend ourselves against all aggressors.

Our next activity is to attend the "Dinner with a Scientist" event on November 8th, closely followed by the Home Tour on November 11th. Stop by the Giannini home where our girls will be hostesses and chat with these great young women - future AAUW members!

Home Tour

It's that time of year again. Fall is in the air which means the Home Tour is just around the corner (November 11th) and your Home Tour tickets should have just arrived in your mail! Your two tickets are in the envelope with HOME TOUR stamped on the front!

This is our biggest fundraiser of the year and it supports all our wonderful community outreach programs! That's why we are asking each of you, if you are able to, to purchase or sell your two tickets. If you can't, please return them in the stamped envelope that was mailed with your tickets. If you need more tickets, you can get them at one of the four ticket vendors listed on the poster below, or you can call Kathy Casenave (471-0555).

How about spreading the word by emailing a copy of the Home Tour poster to your neighbors and family so they can purchase a ticket from one of the vendors.

OR how about planning a fun outing with friends? Call a bunch of old friends to purchase a ticket from you and then all of you attend the Home Tour together—include a breakfast date beforehand or dinner afterwards!

Thank you for your continuing support of our programs...

And the rest of the Home Tour Committee

Volunteers Still Needed

Volunteers are still needed to bake cookies for the Home Tour. Please contact me to sign up to bake 2-3 dozen cookies. These cookies can be homemade or bakery. Cookies can be dropped off at my home Friday, November 9th or Saturday November 10th, at 2811 Wagner Heights Rd. My contact info is cell (209) 406-5346, or email mofrischkorn@gmail.com. Your support is very much appreciated. Thank you.

AAUW California 2018 Legislative Update

We have been making tremendous headway since 2015 in passing bills that help to close the gender pay gap.

1. The Fair Pay Act has been improved by limiting the use of one's prior salary to establish new salary (2015-358 & SB 1063-2016)
2. Susan Eggman sponsored AB-2282 this year. An employer cannot inquire about prior salaries.

We still have work to be done. Jackson cosponsored bill SB1284 that included pay transparency of employers and company's pay practices. It is stalled in the legislative process.

The #MeToo movement assisted momentum and awareness of sexual harassment provided the interest in the gender pay gap. Many bills were presented to the governor that resulted in mixed results. We have more work to be done and will continue work to push for closing the gender gap.

The full list of bills in 2018 is on our website.

> This school year, AAUW Title IX Cheerleaders will be attending sporting events at AAUW-Stockton's two institutional partners, San Joaquin Delta College and University of the Pacific. As we attend each local athletic event, we'll be supporting female athletes while raising AAUW's profile in the community.

> Members of our Branch's 40-person cheerleading squad will wear their bright blue T-shirts proclaiming "AAUW Supports Title IX!" To borrow a loaner shirt size XL, contact me ahead of time. (See RSVP). No official shirt? Simply wear a sky-blue shirt or sweater to the game, if possible.

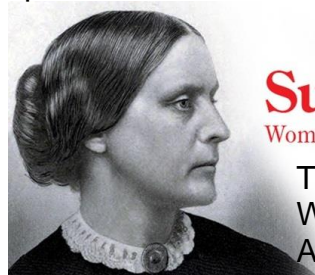

See you at the game!

Diane Stauffer, Kathy Casenave, Cindy Milford, and Helen Vignolo cheered for female athletes at Delta's October 17th win over Sacramento City College.

The four Title IX Cheerleaders who attended the October 17th night game at Delta College were announced at a timeout, and the crowd of mostly local athletes' families clapped for our little group. We made a real statement in support of female athletes that night since we stood out in the sparse crowd! Let's make an even stronger statement by increasing our group's size for the November 17th UOP game! We need to add two more names to the eight who have already signed up to get the $4 price. Bring a friend or spouse! RSVP!
